1 Thessalonians 5:18

In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ concerning you.

Have you ever been without something and wanted it so bad? You may have desired a job, a spouse, a house or healing and became very frustrated when it didn't happen. As time goes on, you eventually get what you were hoping for and then you move on to wanting something else. You forgot about the waiting period when you became a prayer warrior and fasting expert. But as soon as your desires manifest, those activities eventually ceased. This is an error my brothers and sisters. As Christians, we should always give thanks unto God regardless of our current situation.

Gratitude is not dependent on material things. It is the position of your heart concerning God's promises. Today's scripture tells us that "...this is the will of God in Christ...."; therefore, giving thanks should be our norm. You should not be moved to depression or frustration when it seems like you will not obtain the promises of God. Remember, all of God's promises are yea and amen. Shift our mindset today by loading your spirit with God's Word and you will see the Joy of the Lord. Hallelujah! You need to confess what He said about you in His Word and never deviate from that position.

Give God thanks in every situation even if you are believing for bigger and better. Hug your spouse, children and loved ones or call them to let them know you love them. Look at your financial situation and thank God that it will not always be like this and speak to that contradiction. The Word works, so cheer up! You are not ignoring your situation, but you are acknowledging that God is still so good in the midst of it all. Remember, you have the power to change any situation, but you can't do it through emotions. Giving thanks to God is a decision, not a feeling.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have the Joy of the Lord. This is a great day because I decided to give God thanks every day. I will no longer operate based on my emotions. I will give God thanks in every situation of my life. Hallelujah!

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

What is a mountain to God? Nothing at all. A mountain is anything that appears to be greater than the Word of God and seems impossible to be moved. Today's scripture is the blueprint to remove everything that is blocking you from what God said you can have. The key part of this scripture is the action that you need to take. It says, "whosoever shall say" so you can't just read it and go about your day. You must constantly confess to that mountain to be removed, Hallelujah! Stop whining and complaining about that mountain and speak to it. Don't speak like you are afraid and timid but speak to it with boldness and conviction.

Before that mountain is removed, you must remove your fear. How do you know if fear is crippling you? You know it when after you speak to that mountain you begin to hear things contrary to what you just spoke. Doubt your doubts my brothers and sisters. Fear and faith can't dwell together. Doubt is having faith in the devil and not the Word of God.

After speaking to that mountain, know that it is removed the moment you spoke. Regardless of how long it takes to manifest, you stand on the truth that it has been moved. God does not set us up for failure saints. The scripture states that, "he shall have whatsoever he saith"! You will never go wrong with doing exactly what the Word tells you to do. Align yourself with the Word of God and you shall testify this year like never before!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Every mountain in my life is removed. I have spoken, believed in my heart and have not doubted what I said. It shall it come to pass. Praise Jesus!

2 Timothy 3:16

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

Sadly, many Christians believe that they are set for life because they are a new creature. When you received the life of Christ, that was just the beginning. As child continues to grow physically, they become less dependent on their parents to function. Their mentality also increases by learning new things which continues into adulthood. This is how we should be with the things of God. This topic today is extremely important because countless Christians have failed because of pride. Remaining teachable is the acknowledgement that you don't know it all and that you need the Word of God to walk this walk.

In Matthew 4:4 we are told, "....Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God". His Word will always reveal what is inside of us. There is absolutely no way of getting around this. Humility is the way saints. You can't expect God to move in your life while operating in a prideful spirit. Do you remember that pride is what go Lucifer kicked out of heaven? God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble!!

Jesus is our perfect example. He came not announcing His title or bragging about what He came to do. He showed us how to walk in humility. As Christ is so are we. Never be moved from the character of Jesus. Apply the Word of God to that situation and be changed. Regardless of your age, race or social status, you must be teachable. Walk in humility and you will see wonders in your life today.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Thank You God for Your Grace. I will humble myself before God. I have a teachable spirit and possess the character of Jesus Christ. As Jesus is so am I! Praise the Lord!

Ephesians 3:12

In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of Him.

The Apostle Paul is teaching the saints about some of the benefits we have as Christians. Sometimes we think of benefits as a mean to obtain tangible items such as an employee discount at a department store. In today's scripture, we learn that we have boldness and access with confidence. We don't pray wishing things will happen for we already know it before we pray. This boldness and confidence is not from us, it is from God. Sometimes we feel as if we need to create things on our own to please God. Not at all. God responds to Himself.

When you move in the boldness that has been given to you, you have the confidence that victory is yours. Hallelujah! God loves us so much and he doesn't want us to faint. You are born of God, you have already overcome your situation. Galatians 2:20 states that you now have the faith of God in you which is the same faith Jesus had. Glory to God! The one who created the heavens and the earth dwells in the inside of you.

Before the foundations of the world, you were an overcomer. Even before that situation reared its ugly head, you were an overcomer. You are a child of God and nothing in this world is greater than Jesus. It may look like you are going down but continue to speak that "greater is He that is in me, than he that is in the world". You will see that situation turn around in no time.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Christ in me the hope of Glory! I have access and boldness. My life is a testimony of God's goodness. I will never be moved by fear. Godfidence is my position hallelujah!

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

Sickness is a repeated trick of the devil to distract Christians. Through the Word, you will understand that you are already healed. When you face a contradiction with divine health, you must confess the Word daily until it becomes a part of you. Demons are not afraid of your looks, tears, gender or location. They are only afraid of God's Word. If you don't believe that you are healed, you will never see the healing that is already yours.

You might say why don't God just give me my healing. This is the problem, God has done it all. You have to access this truth by faith. Too many Christians are sick because they don't know that healing is a gift. It is not something you need to do to get it. Access it by faith today. Declare that you are healed. Find all the scriptures on healing and make them your daily affirmation. You will never be sick again! Praise Jesus!

You have the power to obtain your healing. Start confessing what God says about you today. Refuse the plan of the enemy and cast his demons out of your body. You have the victory through Christ Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

There is no sickness in the Kingdom of God. Jesus took every form of sickness to the cross and defeated it. I will never be sick. Divine healing is mine. Hallelujah!

He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

Do you love what you see in the mirror? You should. God did not make a mistake when He created you. Be comforted to know that God does not see what we see. He sees the finished you. The Bible tells us that He knows the end of a thing before the beginning. The love of Christ allows us to see people as God sees them. You shouldn't rejoice when someone is struggling or have slipped in their walk with God. Those who are mature in the Kingdom must help those who are weak. Love covers a multitude of sins.

Before you received the life of Christ, He died for you. His Love is so amazing. Begin to see people as God sees them and when you evangelize, it will become so much easier. Christians are called to encourage and uplift each other. Not the opposite. When you know the Love of Christ, you are compelled to share it. You are so overwhelmed with this GoodNews that you can't hold it in. There is a wave coming to our life that will raise you to another level in God's Love. Your community is blessed because you are there.

Tell everyone about Jesus and what He has done for them. Shake it off when they don't seem interested. You planted the seed. One man plants, one waters but God gives the increase. Hallelujah! You will never struggle to love.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

God loves me. I received the love of Jesus and I will never be afraid. My life is not my own and I live for Jesus. The love of God is shed aboard in my heart. I will never lose because of His Love! Praise Jesus!

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

There is nothing that God is going to do. He has been resting since he finished creating the heaven and earth. What you need is already on the inside of you. When a child is born, there is nothing they need to do to become an adult. Through the process of life, it will happen eventually. You may not see everything that God said you can have but in due season, it will be manifested. Believe that you already have everything that you need to function in your purpose.

See yourself flowing in the things of God by His power. All things mean all things. Call forth what is lacking in your life according to His Divine power. You have an inheritance from Jesus that will never diminish. This power will never cease when you operate it. It will flow from Glory to Glory to Glory. Hallelujah!

This is the reason why, as a Christian, it's so important that you encourage yourself in the Word. The God that dwells on the inside of you will see you through the rough times. Take your authority and declare what you need today!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a peculiar treasure. My words are filled with life, and nothing will harm me. I do not lack anything. Jesus has already supplied every need. I am the lender and not the borrower. All the promises of God are yea and amen!

My people are destroyed for the lack of knowledge.

If there is anything that should destroy a Christian, it should be the devil. Today's scripture lets us know that His people are destroyed because of lack of information. When you don't know what God says about you, your life will be misery even though you are saved. That is right. There is no special prayer or oil to give you the knowledge of God. Your job is to read the Word. Unfortunately, many people don't read the Word. They go to church with the form of godliness but go home to live a powerless life. This is not your story.

Begin to read the Word daily. Find more time to study the Word and begin to let the Holy Spirit reveal the deeper meaning of the word to you. The wisdom of God will overtake you. You don't have to make up for lost time, find a man of God that can teach you the Word. Rapture is imminent, and seasoned Christians are needed to impact this world for Jesus. Glory to God!

The entrance of thy Word brings forth light ("fotizo"- stadium lights). The light that is inside you will blind every demon that tries to stop you. The Glory of God will overtake you this year. Your mind has been renewed today and you will never lack the Word. The knowledge of God will shift you to higher levels. Cheer up, the Word works!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have the mind of Christ. The wisdom of God is flowing through me because Christ dwells in me. Divine intelligence is mine! Glory to God!

Jeremiah 4:22

Mark 11:22*And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

Every man has been given a measure of faith. That faith you received is not meant to stay on that level. You must work your faith daily. Believing in God is not just confession. Execution of what you believe is necessary. As Prophet Uebert Angel says "Confession is faith at the junior level and possession is faith at the higher level". Have faith in God means to have the God kind of faith.

Begin to take God at His Word and exercise your faith. When you are born again, the faith you now possess is the faith of God. Fear will be the thing of the past. You take your position as a son of God and speak the word to any situation. If the doctor told you that you can't have children, demonstrate the power of God by speaking the opposite. You can be bound in a wheelchair, find every scripture on healing and confess it daily. You will walk out of that wheelchair hallelujah!

Faith of God is not predicated on a title. You can be a new or seasoned Christian. Results will vary because faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God. How far your faith takes you depends on the information you have about a particular matter. Increase your faith today by increasing the Word in you!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My faith will grow daily. The Word of God is loaded in me. I have the faith of God in me. No situation can remove me from God's will. The love of Christ is shed abroad in my heart. Hallelujah!

Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barn, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?

The scriptures tells us that they expect God to take care of them. Are you not more valuable to the Kingdom than a bird? Where you are today may not be the place that God destined for you.

It is very easy to get caught up in what you don't have. Never compare yourself with someone else because it will always put you on the wrong path. Be thankful for what you have and use your faith to obtain the promises of God. There are too many testimonies in the Word about God meeting the needs of His children. You shall testify this year of the provisions of God. He has not forgotten you. Remove every word from the devil that told you your life will never change.

Don't worry about your situation. Practice singing praises to God. Set your heart and mind on Him. Never let your situation pull you into an isolated place and become hopeless. You have God's DNA inside of you and he dwells in you. Hallelujah! Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10). When you find yourself in a bad situation, you can encourage yourself by saying what God says about you.

Based on your diet intake, you can have a prosperous or malnutritional spirit. Today's scripture tells us that God is concerned about your spiritual and natural outcome. Immune systems require food. The Word of God is food for your spirit. The more you read the Word the more your spirit grows. You may not be able to see it but growth takes place instantly when you feed your spirit. There are no side effects when you are overweight spiritually. Glory to God!

You must believe that everything God says you can do, it can be done.

Begin to change how you see yourself today. Hold your head up and shout that you that you are victorious through Christ Jesus (1 Corinthians 15:57). Nothing can harm you physically because you are exempt by Jesus. He made you disease and recession proof. Your home is blessed. Your family is blessed. Your business and finances are blessed. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

When you plant a physical seed, you have to wait for it to mature. Each seed has different harvest times, but it will produce what is on the inside. A mango seed does not look anything like the ripe fruit, but it is equipped to produce a harvest. Just like that mango seed, you are created with unseen abilities but on the inside, you are loaded with possibilities. Today's scripture tells us that seeds must die in order to bring forth much fruit.

The fruit of the Spirit is obtained when you die to yourself. Selflessness produces good fruit. Consuming the Word, praying and sowing seeds will produce a massive harvest. Examine your ground today and

Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

Too many times Christians have made the word "Holy" to be some supernatural term. Holy just means to be set apart. So in other words, you can read today's scripture as, "Be ye set apart, for I am set apart". Being set apart is a mindset not an action. You can still be among your old friends and not be separated from that lifestyle. You were bought with a price and are a new creature in Christ. Don't go back and relive the boring, unfulfilled life you once did. You are called by God for a great work and to be set apart is a requirement.

Since you are told to be holy that means it is possible for you to do it. God will never instruct you to do something that you are not able to do. Your heart is aligned with the things of God and you will produce what God has put inside of you. When everyone else is doing what they please, continue to walk with God. There is not an off and on switch with being set apart for God's work. It is a state of being. People will be shocked when you decline their event because you need to spend time with God. To be set apart produces God-Kind results.

Time will become worse as the Bible teaches us but we must be prepared. The whole armour of God is what we use to stop the devil. This armour is not physical but spiritual. In this same chapter we learn that we wrestle not with flesh and blood. This fight is spiritual brothers and sisters.

When Christians hear about Grace, they either bask in it or think they need to earn it by works. It is a gift of God that will never be removed. For the gifts and callings of God are without repentance (Romans 11:29). Your concern should never be if someone deserves the Grace of God or not. Walk in the Grace given to you and let God be God. Grace as we know is not a license to sin. The goodness of God leads men to repentance. The more you understand about Grace, the more you don't want to frustrate the Grace of God. He has done all of the hard work for you.

His Grace is amazing. There might be days when you don't feel you deserve His Grace. Remove those thoughts and declare God has given you the gift of Grace. Faith is progressive. You should not use yesterday's faith for today. Too many people get caught up in the mindset. Because they saw victory in one area, they stop building their faith. Do not do this. Faith is like a muscle. The more you work it, the stronger it gets. When you don't use it, it becomes stagnant. When you move in faith you remain in that vein until you see what you spoke. Hallelujah! Don't let the devil rob you of your reward through unbelief. Increase your faith by praying in the Holy Ghost!

Pray the Word of God and pray over the prophecies on your life. This is real faith. You are not coming to God asking for anything. In prayer, you are reminding Him of His Word and thanking Him for every prophecy coming to pass. See yourself in the new home, holding your child or operating that business. Praise Jesus! This walk if fixed, just walk it out. There is no limit with your faith. Take it as high as you want to go.

Nothing is able to stop you when you believe in your heart the things you have spoken. Praying in tongues is a good way to increase your faith. Your faith is increasing now. Never come down from this position. Continue to read the Word and pray daily. Your faith is stronger than it has ever been. Glory to His Holy name!

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

As long as you live, someone will do something to you that you will not like. Whether it is slander, theft, or some form of abuse, forgiveness is the answer. You may feel as if you are justified to get even but that is not a characteristic of Christ. Unforgiveness is like drinking poison expecting the other person to die. It is just not worth your time or sanity. You cannot hide anything from God. Offense is a decision not an emotion. I know you instantly feel an emotion when you are offended but you have a choice to reject it. Emotions are not meant to rule you.

It seems unfair to not retaliate in some form when you are wronged. The ways of God are not like man. Trust in His Word and do it His way. The peace of God shall overtake you and then you will find yourself praying for that individual. Never rejoice when something bad happens to someone when they have done evil to you. Always walk in the Spirit which to walk in Love. God will reward you when you do it His way. Anyone who fights you is fighting against God and you know the outcome. Love your enemies and do good to those that hate you (Luke 6: 27). Keep your heart in the right place and remain under God's protection.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I will not allow unforgiveness overtake me. I am a mature Christian. All of my battles are the Lord's and He shall avenge my enemies. I am divinely protected in Jesus mighty name!

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

It should be a daily practice to confess that there is nothing you can't do through Christ Jesus. Prophet Uebert Angel taught us that "We are not human". You have countless capabilities as a believer and the Word of God will cause all of them to manifest. You may not feel that you can do all things because of where you live or your financial condition. Let the Word of God strengthen you while you are making your way to His promises. When you get up in the morning, declare with boldness that you are a child of God and there is nothing that can stop you. Praise the Lord!

When you speak with boldness and belief, do not doubt for a second. Stand on that conviction and know change has happened when you declared it. Don't wait to see it. Cast out those evil thoughts that try to convince you otherwise. You can do all things through Christ! Walk in that truth from now on.

When the Word of God dwells in you, the strength of God is evident. You can do the impossible. Those that doubt you will be amazed. You are not walking in your ability but in the power of God. Declare who you are today and go conquer in the name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I declare that nothing will ever hinder me. My mind is focused on the things of God. My mouth will produce everything God said I can have. I am a proof producing Christian. Praise the name of Jesus!

But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is, the word of faith, which we preach.

Reading and speaking the Word is not enough. You see, today's scripture tells us that faith is when we have the Word in our mouth and heart. Too many times Christians just confess the Word and never act on it. So faith without works is dead (James 2:26). Failure is not a vocabulary in the Kingdom of God. You can produce the same results that Jesus did. Glory be to God!

The power to speak something into existence lies in your tongue. The words you speak daily are either building you up or tearing you down. You determine the fruit produced by your spoken word. The devil has nothing to do with this. You have the power to change atmospheres, industries and government. Use that power today to shift any situation. Speak it, believe it and praise God in advance!

Avoid speaking negative words. Believe the Good News that there is no bondage in Christ Jesus. You will always have the victory because greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I believe God's Word. My mouth and heart are in agreement. I will always speak life. God has already given me the desires of my heart. What a mighty God we serve!

Let someone else praise you, and not your own mouth; an outsider, and not your own lips.

Most people are very proud of their accomplishments, and nothing is wrong with that. You should celebrate when these events happen. There is a problem when you let those accomplishments overtake you. You know the type of people that demand praise for every little thing as if the world would fall apart without them. Entitlement is rooted in pride. If someone calls you by your name and not your title you get offended.

When you give a big seed, you expect a call from leadership to thank you. This is wrong my brothers and sisters. Don't praise yourself as instructed in today's scripture. Focus on God's Word and the lost and you will not have enough time to think about your efforts.

Remember Jesus made Himself of no reputation and neither should you. Unfortunately, social media promotes this type of behaviour, and it has crept into the Body of Christ. We should reverence men and woman of God and not ourselves. Rid yourself today of the desire to be acknowledged and walk in humility. Your life should be driven to please God and not man.

Look for the gifts and strengths of others to celebrate. Choose to avoid seeking approval or praise for anything you do. When you do things unto God, it is recorded in Heaven and that is the best acknowledgement.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My desire is to give God all of the glory. I do not have a need to be recognized for my works. From this day on, I shall honour and reverence leaders. Humility is my testimony. Hallelujah!

As a child of God you will go through challenges. I hope you took notice of "will go through". As the old saying goes, "Trouble don't always last". Wherever you find yourself today, know that you are called to preach the Gospel to everyone. Never size someone up and draw a conclusion that they may not need Jesus. Your emotions are not the driver for signs to follow you. Believing that you have the authority and power to win souls will unlock so many doors. Just open your mouth and tell this dying world about Jesus. The power in you to heal the sick is there, you just need to move in faith. Flesh will always find an excuse to doubt the Word. The Word works, cheer up!

The only way for you to manifest the power of God is to walk in the Spirit. Devils and serpents will not bow to the flesh, they respond to the Word. You are in this world but not of it. The only permanent thing is the Word of God. Don't put your trust on anything else. God is with you when you step out on faith to win souls. Remove tradition and fear of rejection. You are not going to market your abilities; you are going to let God work through you. Winning souls is your passion today. Glory be to God!

The reason why you are still alive today is because there is a specific assignment for you to accomplish. Don't let anyone or anything get you off track from your purpose. In these last days, you need to make noise more than ever before. Time is running out and you do not want to be left behind because of fear. Your faith must be so radical that everyone who sees your life will catch the fire of the Holy Ghost!

Radical faith is when you don't care what people think or say about you or God. There is no backing down in the face of the devil. The only outcome is that one will be defeated and the good news is that it is not you. Non-believers are very bold in what they do. You have witnessed the travesty that is taking place in this world. The norm of today contradicts what the Word says. Christians must influence the world the GoodNews of Jesus Christ. There is so much work to do. Because you are reading this today, that means you are among the radical ones.

You are meant to hold up the banner of God and compel the lost to receive Jesus. Never back down and lose faith. The world is waiting for you to get into position and transform every place you go. God is for you and with you.

God's provision is eternal. It is mind blowing sometimes when people doubt they can live a prosperous life. To set the record straight, when you lack, it is not God's fault. God is not trying to make an example out of you by withholding something. The Bible tells us that all of His promises are yea and amen (1 Corinthians 1:20). You can't dispute the Word of God regardless of how you may feel. Facts have NO feelings!

Imagine if your natural parents told you that there is a bank account you can use at anytime. They never indicated the limits but you are aware that you can draw funds when needed. Would it be their fault if you kept withdrawing five pounds every month? No. Knowing that you serve a God that is rich, why do you lack? There is Grace for you today to renew your mind and obtain the provisions of God. His supply can and will never run out. If you desire one million dollars, load yourself with scriptures about money. If you desire to build a hotel, find every scripture about that matter and stand on and in it. Go and change that lack in your life. The Money is Coming. Hallelujah!

I love today's scripture because it details who we are and what we are capable of doing. Christians sometimes like to take the easy road and remain in the background because they don't want to offend anyone. Christians should never be quiet. Wicked people in high positions are not quite nor do they lack dominating in every industry. It is now the time for Christians to stand up and stand out. You have the power and authority to dominate on this earth. Everything is subject to you because Christ lives in you. Go change the music, government, clothing or medical industry. Choose your direction and stick to it daily.

It is such an honour to be made in the image of God. No other creature on this earth can claim this. In addition, you have the ability to dominate. You can function like God. From this day forward, begin to walk in your God given authority. Speak to everything that is out of order and call it to align with the Word of God. What ever you desire, go after it and conquer it. We serve a mighty, rich, wise and powerful God. You are joint heirs with Christ so go and dominate today!

The scripture today instructs us to believe. All of God's generals were successful because they believed God. There may have been times when fear creeps in when they face challenging situation but they chose to believe God. Praise Jesus! You can't pick and choose when you will believe God. Allow the Word of God to transform your mindset.

Whether you have seen the impossible or not, just believe because His Word instructs us to. Now is the time for you to get out of your comfort zone and believe what the Bible says. Full stop! David and Goliath is a well known story. David was a fiery young man when he defeated Goliath. Before his victory, the Israel army were surrounded by fear. The experience David gained when he killed a lion and a bear, his confidence in God was very high. He knew that the same God who delivered him from the lion and the bear will do the same in any situation. You must have the same mindset today. God has delivered you out of dangerous situations and you are still here. You can't see God move in one area and then have doubt if He will in another. You must constantly view your situation through God's Word.

David knew without a shadow of doubt that God would deliver Goliath into his hands. Just imagine a giant standing in front of you and there is an army with heavy artillery behind you but too afraid to help. All you need that moment is God which is more than enough. Push past those negative thoughts and declare the outcome of that situation just like David did. Fear may have tried to stop David but because he was so confident in God's ability, he moved with that perception.

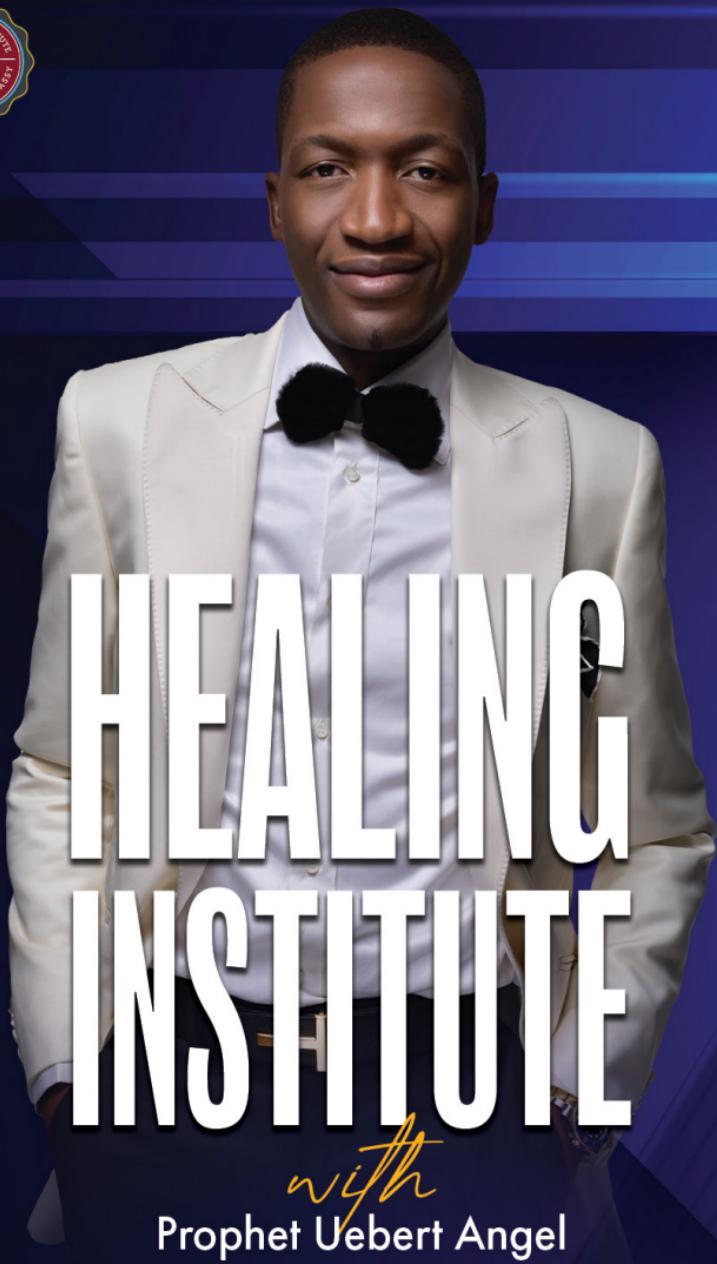

Visualize yourself in every promise of God. You already have the victory through Christ Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I refuse to fear! My mind has been renewed by the Word of God. Thank you Lord Jesus for my new outlook. Doubt has no power over me. My perception is rooted in the blessings of God. Praise Jesus!

Hosea 4:6

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

The God you talk about is the God who shows up. If you talk about Jesus the Healer, the Healer shows up. If you talk about the God who has made you rich, that's who shows up. Many Christians struggle with money because they have never heard what God has to say about it. Yet the Word of God talks more about money than Heaven and Hell combined.

God has a lot to say about your financial status. However, in a sense, money is like righteousness that you must be conscious of what you already have to fully benefit from it. You must know God's will concerning your finances in order to begin to function in the wealth He has designated for you.

The reality is you cannot go beyond your mindset. It is not possible. That is why it is so important for you to hear the Word of God concerning your money. It takes faith to bring financial prosperity into your life, and faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. But you cannot hear the Word for healing and expect your bank account to prosper. Financial prosperity requires you to hear the Word of God concerning your money. I freely say, "your" money because God has given you riches. You are not the poor. You are the rich discovering and manifesting your riches. Part of the process of doing that is to inundate your spirit with the biblical language of money. Take the time to discover what He has given you and why. That is the first step to opening the floodgates of financial wonders in your life.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I was born into a rich family with all the resources I could ever need. I am armed with the revelation that God wants me rich and open my spirit to receive all that belongs to me. From this very moment, attaining wealth will never be a struggle for me, in Jesus' mighty Name!

Joel 2:26

And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

The Name of the Lord is worthy to be praised! We can declare this with all certainty. However, not all praise is the same. Your praise is often based on your revelation of His ability and capability in your life. A rich Christian praises God differently than a Christian who is suffering from lack simply because their revelation of God differs. One experiences Him as the God of abundance who causes you to eat in plenty and be satisfied. The other does not.

This is the year your praise is raised to another level. That begins by understanding that God is not interested in providing you with just enough. It goes against His nature to do so. His desire is for you to be satisfied with excess, overflow, and superfluous abundance! That is His standard of prosperity for you. When you have more than enough, your praise is different. As your money increases, your praise also increases. You will no longer only say that the Lord is good. You will look at your bank balances, your refrigerator, and yourself and declare, "The Lord has dealt wondrously with me!" Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

In this year of Wonders without Number, I testify and declare the Lord has dealt wondrously with me and prospers me beyond extraordinary!

2022 is a year of extremes. It is an allotment of time containing a conglomeration of opportunities, an assortment of possibilities. Among those is the possibility of being broke or the opportunity to be rich. It is up to you to choose. Financial wealth does not start when you have millions in your account. It starts the moment you decide to step out of poverty and into financial prosperity. This very minute, you can decide to walk out of your poverty and into your riches. The moment you make that decision, money begins to come to you. But before such a decision can be made, you must be convinced that God wants to prosper you.

The will of God is that you prosper above everything else. Through the words of Apostle John, He said, "I wish above all things that you may prosper!" (3 John 1:2). It is paramount that you pray and get the Word of God in you. But notice He did not say above all things I want you to pray, or above all things I want you to read the Word. He said I want you to prosper! Then He tells us how this will happen, "even as your soul prospers." Your decision to be rich starts with your mind because you cannot prosper beyond the information you have. So, begin to fill your heart with the Word of God concerning money, prosperity, and riches. When your heart is full of the Word, prosperity is sure to follow.

There is no such thing as an impossible situation when God is involved. That is why it is important that you remove all restrictions and limitations when it comes to how you think about money. The money is coming but only to those who have possibility thinking. If you think it's impossible for unlimited resources to come to you, it becomes impossible for money to come to you. But when you think it's possible, you become a wealth magnet.

In this year of Wonders without Number, your thoughts are vitally important now more than ever. The money is coming to those with prosperous minds, those whose minds are filled with possibility thinking. Always remember, if you can think it up, you can bring it down. If you think poor, you will believe poor, act upon being poor, and ultimately become poor. But if you think big, you will believe big and obtain big results. If you cannot think it, you cannot get it. But when you think big, every limitation is removed!

God is not in the business of borrowing from the wicked. He is in the business of plundering them. The wealth of the wicked has been stored up for you (Proverbs 13:22), and the greatest wealth transfer is underway right now!

Know that it is God's will for you to be rich, just as it was His will to let the plunder of the Egyptians become a success. Also, know that as you increase financially, the money that is coming to you is money with a mission. Yes, God expects you to have and enjoy the best as royalty should. He wants you to have a life filled with abundance. And out of the surplus of that abundance, He is counting on His children to finance His projects to get the Gospel of His Grace to every corner of the Earth. We are the end-time Kingdom financiers ushering in this end-time harvest of souls!

A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

The purpose of prosperity is that we, having enough, will be able to further the spreading of the Gospel. It is money with a mission! Kingdom-building for the expansion of the Gospel is our primary agenda for getting money. That is why the Church should not be poor, and the child of God should never be broke. We are supposed to have plenty and in abundance so that we can be a blessing to others.

The Bible says money answers all things. That does not mean that money is the answer to all things. It means that whenever there is an issue, or wherever you see people struggling and arguing, the issue of money has been introduced. Both God and money serve the same purpose – to answer all things. God has answered your poverty with prosperity, your lack with abundance, and generational curses with generational blessings. Take what is yours, for there is a conglomeration of opportunities for money to come to you in this year of Wonders without Number.

When God wants to be entertained, He does not turn on Netflix or watch a football match on TV; He looks at your bank balance. Our verse for today tells you that it pleases God greatly to see you prosper. He was so desperate to see you prosper that He came in a flesh suit called Jesus and divested Himself of His riches so that you, through His poverty, might be rich.

God wants you to have financial pleasure, not financial pressure. He wants you well and rich. He wants you to possess the financial power to do His work on Earth so that He can increase and gain more ground for His Kingdom. Joy and gladness come to those who favour God's righteous cause, and you favour God's righteous cause by financing it. When you start financing God's righteous cause, God will overwhelm you with abundance because you simply cannot outgive God. When you surrender your best for the sake of the Gospel, God gives His best to you.

The Bible says that you speak from what is in your heart, and by those words, you create the life you want or don't want. It is impossible to talk defeat and expect to be victorious. You cannot talk failure and expect to be successful. Neither can you talk poverty and expect to be rich. This year, more than ever, your words must come into alignment with God's will for you to prosper.

Everything around you is listening to what you say. The walls can hear you. Your body can hear you. Your bank account can hear you. Money itself can hear you. That is why the Lord tells us to preach good news to every creature, not every person. Every created thing is waiting for your words. Declare good news to your body by declaring your covenant right to divine health. Saturate the atmosphere in your home with prayer. Speak life into your relationships, business, and ministry. Declare that wonders without number come to you.

He tells us that it is His will for you to be well in your body, yet there are Christians who are sick. He says He came to make us rich, still there are Christians who live in poverty, struggling continually in their finances. In His wisdom and love for you, God has given you the ability to choose what He wants for you or not.

God is not personally limited by anything or anyone. But when it comes to us receiving from Him, we can limit what He wants to do through us or for us. He limits or confines His ability to your free will and your faith. If the power of faith isn't working in you, He will not work independently of you. God can do exceedingly abundantly above anything you can think up or dare to dream or imagine, but it is according to the faith at work in you. You have the power to cooperate with God by acting out your faith based on what you believe in His Word. That is how you take the limits off God.

The Kingdom has to be received and entered or taken. That is why the Bible says the righteous "take it by force." That means your prosperity is not a passive event. Believing you will be rich is not enough. Believing is a noun, whereas faith is a verb, and a verb is an act. You do not get all God has for you just because someone prayed for you. You have a part to play. The money is coming! But for it to come to you, you must actively and aggressively take it by faith.

Prosperity is the right of every Christian. Welcome prosperity into your heart, but don't stop there. Seize your wealth by actively receiving it. You do that by believing in your heart what God has said concerning your prosperity and then acting out your faith based on what you believe. Act like things are already so before things change in the natural. Talk like you are already paid! The money is coming! Begin to move in its direction by acting on what you believe, and take it as if by force!

It is high time for us to leave off speaking about the futile plans of the enemy, and such things as generational curses, and embrace generational blessings. You are not cursed, but if you believe yourself to be, then it shall be so for you.

God always plans for the long term, and in His plan of salvation, He made provision for every aspect of your prosperity. Sin and sickness were destroyed on the cross, poverty was annihilated, and the devil was defeated. The Bible says that Christ became a curse so that we could be delivered from every curse (Galatians 3:13). Therefore, there should be no generational curse for a person who is operating rightly as a New Testament Christian. The provisions for prosperity are for you, your children, and your children's children.

When you agree with what God says and vocalise what you believe, your soundwaves create roadways, bridges and highways for angels to get money to you. Without this transportation system, there is no way for money to get to you.

Declare at every opportunity that the money is coming. When you lie down at night, declare the money is coming! When you wake up in the morning, declare the money is coming! In so doing, you are creating the right sound waves for angels to travel and deliver your money to you. It is not a confession; it is an affirmation of a spiritual reality. You are confirming that angels are coming with your money. Do it right now! Shout, THE MONEY IS COMING!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

By the sound of my words, I energise the environment of angels creating roadways and highways for them to bring money to me. They are in motion right now, moving towards my storehouses – my business and my bank accounts – with speed. THE MONEY IS COMING NOW!

Ecclesiastes 11:3

If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth

Consistently declaring that the money is coming activates a principle found in the scripture. In the book of Isaiah, God reveals a system by which you can speak on the same frequency as God. He says, when I give you a word, it is like rain coming down. Then as you return that word back to Him, it is like clouds gathering water.

The world encourages you to "save for a rainy day," but you are not expecting rainy days. God has given you His own weather forecast: the clouds over your life are heavy with abundance. It is a supernatural meteorological process whereby your words go out into the spiritual realm and saturate the atmosphere. The more you declare that the money is coming, your words create a tipping point, a time when the angels you activated arrive delivering that which you confessed. Like clouds filling with rain, your words are producing results, and angels are set in motion. So, don't stop saying it. Keep talking about the money coming.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am making spiritual deposits into a supernatural system that brings me wealth. My clouds of prosperity are full, and wealth pours into my life, showering me with abundance. The money is coming!

The diameter of the sun is nearly 1.4 million kilometres. The Sequoia trees native to California can grow 84 metres high with trunks up to 8 metres in diameter. The ark God instructed Noah to build was over 155 metres long, nearly 26 metres wide, and over 15 metres high. That's taller than three double-decker buses stacked on top of each other. Its storage capacity was enough to hold about 450 standard semi-trailers. God does not think small, and neither should you.

When you think big, you are agreeing with God. That also means that when you do not think big, you disagree with God. He says ask of me, and I will give you the nations (Psalm 2:8). He expects you to be a possibility thinker. Impossible is not in God's vocabulary, and if you agree with God concerning your prosperity, it will be in yours. When it comes to your influence in the marketplace, soul winning, your money, or any endeavour, never fear to think big. God said you should imitate Him, so agree with God and think BIG just as He does!

You are a creative being with the ability to call those things which be not as though they were. If only you knew how powerful you are! You can have anything you desire and create the life of your dreams by decreeing how you want things to be. The only stipulation is that what you decree be in the will of God for you. I know you are wondering, how can I know what God's will is? The answer is simple. The will of God is His Word contained in the Bible.

When you read the Word of God, you are reading God's will for your life. Take the best parts as your own. If He has said His desire is for you to be well, it ought to be well with you. If He said that He became poor so that you might be rich, know that a life of riches and abundance is His will for you. Then, after knowing His will, unleash your imagination picturing the outcome of what will manifest in your life. As you engage your imagination, declare His will, and then act as if what you believe and have spoken is already so.

I don't really like to cook, but I like to watch food being cooked. I appreciate the technicalities involved with cooking and baking. I have observed in baking there is something called a starter, which is a leavening agent that causes dough to rise. A starter does not work on its own. You add it to ingredients that you have already combined to accelerate the process. A starter is said to leaven or "breathe life" into the bread.

That is how thanksgiving works. As you declare God's will over your life, imagine the outcome of that desire being fulfilled, and act as if it is so, your thanksgiving breathes life into your miracle. Keep thanking God for what you have received even though it is not yet evident in the physical. In so doing, you are breathing life into your miracle and activating an agent that ensures the outcome you desire.

Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

With all we have been saying about the money is coming, our verse for today seems like a contradiction. It tells us that we should not labour to be rich, yet the average person takes a job as a way to get wealth. They work solely for the purpose of obtaining money. But that is a poverty mindset. Money is not an end; it is a means to an end – a tool. Foolish people work themselves to death because they do not understand the true purpose of money. They may have money, but they still think poor.

Jesus has indeed commanded us to do business until He comes back. However, it was never God's will for Christians to work for a living. In fact, it is a curse to sweat for a living, and we are not under a curse. Therefore, we are redeemed from sweating for a living. We work for a giving understanding that our money is for the work of God. When you have this mindset concerning money, you attract wealth because wealth is attracted to those who understand it. Wealth has a purpose. As you do business, concentrate on the purpose of wealth and not the wealth itself, and money will stampede to your accounts!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am created for a godly purpose, and my money is for godly purposes. The money is coming to me to be used for the Kingdom! I refuse to sweat for a living, for I am blessed to prosper, and I work for a giving!

So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

It is a proven fact that you cannot outgive God. He is a King who protects His reputation at all costs, and that reputation is secured by means of His vast wealth. Therefore, it is impossible to outgive Him because, as the ultimate King, He needs that value ascribed to Him. But here is where I don't want you to miss it. God can use the most unexpected source to get provision to you.

In a time of drought and famine, God sent ravens to minister provision to His servant Elijah. A raven is a most unlikely creature because it is both dirty and selfish. Yet when God's servant did as the Lord instructed, God employed ravens to bring bread and meat to Elijah.

You are becoming a wealth magnet. And you must understand that what you need may come through an unexpected source, even something you might be tempted to undermine. But remember that sinners are heaping up riches for you. That means someone you might consider unclean, inferior, even selfish may be the vessel God chose to transfer the wealth of the wicked to you.

In 2 Kings 4, we see a widow woman who was broke and left to deal with her husband's debts. She needed money, but all she had was a little jar of oil. It was not enough to do what she needed. But notice, she did not run to a bank for a loan, she did not run up her credit card, neither did she look for some illegal way to get money. Instead, she sought a word from the Lord concerning her situation.

She was given a simple instruction – go borrow containers, and do not gather just a few. She was further instructed to act out her faith and start pouring from her jar into the containers. God filled as many containers as she had with oil, and it only stopped flowing when she ran out of containers. In this year of Wonders without Number, do not set a limit on what God will do for you. Put "containers" out everywhere, not just a few. Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

That is why they are more aware of evil and doubt the blessings that are theirs by covenant right. Still, the Bible is replete with information that is there for your benefit. So why believe only the bad parts and doubt the best God has for you?

If you are to be a recipient of money that makes you a financial wonder, you must learn to use doubt to turn the tide in your favour. Doubt directed at the devil is good. In fact, when you doubt your doubts, that is faith. So, whenever the

A debt-free life is what God has ordained for you. He has established that you are the lender, not the borrower. The wealth being supplied to you is more than enough to shift the economy of nations. But you must employ spiritual principles that ensure that when the money comes it does not fly away from you. Debt will make a slave out of you, for the Bible says, "the borrower is slave to the lender." That is not God's will for your life. He needs you to be unencumbered so that as money comes to you, it does not need to be redirected to pay off unnecessary debt.

Money listens to you; debt also has ears. Your bills can hear you, and by the authority of the Holy Ghost, when you speak to debt, it has no option but to vacate the premises and disappear from your life. At the same time, you must understand that you must exercise wisdom in your financial affairs as a good steward of wealth. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

The Bible is truly written, but not everything in the Bible is true or for you. For example, in his distress and sorrow, Job declared, "the Lord gives, and the Lord takes away." However, that is what Job said, not God. God assures us that His gifts are without repentance. In other words, He will not gift you something and then turn around and take it back from you. So, when God instructs you to give your tithe and offering, never be deceived into thinking He needs your money or is trying to take something away from you. That is not and will never be the case.

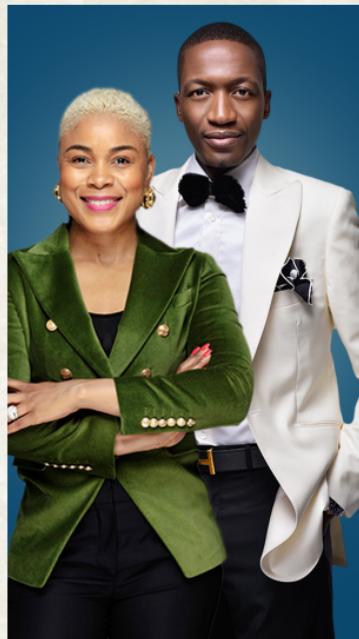

Understand that God is the One who gives you power to get wealth. Any work you manage to accomplish is a result of the spiritual, mental, and physical capabilities He has provided. Therefore, you could not tithe or give offerings if He did not supply resources for you to do so. Tithes and offerings protect God's investment of wealth in you. The abundance of money in your life allows God to display His wealth and prosperity through you. He wants to show the world that He can take the little you give Him and prove that we are co-owners with Him of Earth and all its resources.

Wisdom is a hedge against inflation and loss. Wise people employ means to preserve and increase wealth because they understand that money runs away from foolish people. The Bible says that if you walk with wise people, you become wise. So, in this year of Wonders without Number, your fellowship with the Lord is paramount. Chris is our wisdom; therefore, as you spend time with Him in prayer and in the Word, you inevitably become wise.

That is one of the best investment strategies.

Another investment strategy preserves your wealth, and that is winning souls. Why? Because the Bible says that the fact you win souls indicates wisdom is present.

Soul winning is partnering with God in His biggest and most important investment. He wants Heaven full and Hell empty. So, as money comes to you this year and you consider ways to preserve and increase wealth, make sure winning souls is a big part of your risk management strategy.

Let God arise

Prayer is the bedrock of Christianity. Prayer does not change God; prayer changes you and sensitises you to what God wants. Prayer is designed to make you. And the person you become when you pray is more important than your prayer points. During your prayer time, focus on who God wants you to be. The Word of God already makes it clear that He wants you to be rich, fearless, a passionate soul winner, etc. So, when you pray, you are not asking for these things. Instead, you are allowing God to make you become that person He has already ordained you to be.

When it comes to money, you are not praying for God to give you money. You are simply aligning yourself with His will for you to be rich and sensitising your spirit to what God wants to do in and through you. In this year of Wonders without Number, let God arise in your prayer life. Spend long hours fellowshipping with Him in prayer. Set aside time to sit down with Him and talk to Him about the things that are important to you, just as you would with your dearest confidante. Turn off your devices and have times where you spend time praying in tongues. Have your notebook and pen ready so you can write down what He says to you. He will tell you where to find your money, how to position yourself to receive it, and what to do with it once you have it in hand.

There is something called "tacit consent" or "tacit agreement." It refers to giving approval to something without actually saying so. You stay quiet, and when you remain quiet, it is taken as agreement. When it comes to the issue of poverty, you cannot afford to be quiet. Everything in you should hate poverty. I did not say you should hate poor people, but rather, hate poverty itself. Poverty and lack are not of God. It is God's will for you to be rich and to live in abundance. So, when you hate poverty, you come into agreement with God's will for you to be rich.

After you're born again, poverty is completely unacceptable in your life. You become an heir of God, and all the wealth in this world belongs to you. Once you accept this truth in your spirit and allow it to dominate your thinking, it will give you a wealthy mindset. You will not be silent about your riches. Quiet Christians die quietly, and quiet broke Christians die broke. Speak boldly of God's will for you to be rich. At every opportunity declare, "THE MONEY IS COMING!" The spiritual will get you to the physical if you accept all the parts of the Gospel.

Your life is ordained by God to go from one level of glory to another. You were created for success, divine health, prosperity, and the good life. All things are yours by right of inheritance in Christ Jesus; they are included in the salvation package. So do not worry when you are criticised by those who oppose your spiritual and physical blessings. It is not your

You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drip with abundance.

When you read a scripture like today's verse, you cannot help but give a shout unto the Lord! When you read the word 'crown,' you immediately think of the ornamental headdress worn by royalty. A crown symbolises royalty, wealth, authority, power, and divinity. In this verse, the Spirit of the Lord takes the imagery even further because the word 'crown' literally means to encircle, surround, or compass about. Then it says the year is crowned with God's 'goodness.' That word 'goodness' carries many different meanings. It includes everything good or excellent; it also means beautiful, wealth, rich, pleasure, and sweet. Hallelujah!

This is descriptive of the year God has ordained for you. It is a year of Wonders without Number, a year where you are surrounded by goodness, excellence, beauty, wealth, riches, and pleasure! And it does not end there. The scripture goes on to say, "Your paths drip with abundance!" God is telling you that not only is your year surrounded with goodness, but He has also set paths or an entrenchment around the year, and that entrenchment is dripping with abundance! How can you fail this year? How can you lack? It is just not possible!

Many of God's children have not even scratched the surface of what belongs to them. As a result, they are going without what belongs to them by right. Right now, the great wealth transfer is on the lips of Christians and non-Christians alike. The investment community is buzzing with what they think is a new catchphrase. But for us Christians, it is more than a catchphrase because the Bible says all things – including this great wealth transfer – are taking place for your sake.

Many sports experts confirm that stamina plays a pivotal role in many sports disciplines for one to over power or score victory over an opponent. Stamina is one's ability to sustain prolonged physical or mental effort. It is that physical and mental strength which an individual possesses and those with great stamina seem to score major victories on the field. In the same vein, the devil is our generational foe who always try to take us down but those with great spiritual stamina will put him where he belongs which is under your feet. Remember the name devil is not only a name but a job description, it means one who pounces over and over until he pierces through. He tries by all means to take you down but it's your stamina that resist him and put him under your feet.

The bible reveals that when we pray in an unknown tongue, we edify ourselves. The moment you take time to pray, you are like one in a holy ghost gym building a strong spiritual stamina. Then Jesus saith unto him, Get thee hence Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shalt thou serve.

The word of God comes in two common forms known to the church which is "Logos" and " Rhema". These two Greek words reveal different paradigms of the word of God. Logos is the written word of God, the words you are reading from the bible and quoting everyday. On the other hand "Rhema" is the spoken word of God.

Our scripture above shows Jesus's response to the pestering of the devil who wanted him to bow down and worship him. Take note that the devil had the audacity to go for "Jesus " not a disciple, after Jesus fasted and prayed. This shows that the enemy is not afraid of fasting or prayer but something beyond. When the devil tempted Jesus for the first and second time, Jesus was giving him "logos": written word. On the last time, the scripture revealed that Jesus commanded the enemy from his mouth, "get away Satan, for it is written..." He was dismissed by the words which Jesus spoke himself not just quoted.

The enemy is not afraid about what comes from your Bible or from a book written by your man of God but by God 's word that comes through your mouth. This is something that you say from your inner self. It is the word that you took to be part of your life and you speak it with conviction. The Holy Spirit is the spirit of boldness. Boldness is a gift from God to his children. Boldness is the opposite of fear and fear is having faith in the devil. Boldness is the ability to approach anything with confidence and tenacity without any inch of doubt or fear. The highest level of faith or boldness is attained when the will of God is known. When a child of God lives without full knowledge of the will of God, the devil will always instill fear and cause defeat.

David the psalmist feared no one because God was his light and salvation as the scripture says. He had seen God delivering him from the bear, lion and the great

Remember you are a child of the King and you carry divine authority and power to dominate and rule your environment. You were not given the spirit of fear but of power, love and a sound mind. Apostle Paul is one general who encountered turmoil and catastrophes of life but he didn't lose his faith. He was so committed to his calling that when he was folding his ministry, he declared that "I fought a good fight, ran my race and kept the faith...". You might be reading this prophetic word thinking that your situation is beyond the realm of change or transformation but remember nothing is impossible with God. Stay with me as we go deeper with this.

Our scripture states that the suffering or pain of today are nothing compared to the glory ahead. Brothers and sisters, there is glory ahead of you. You slept yesterday with tears dripping but you shall not close today the same way because there is glory being revealed through you. When God blesses his children, it's not only for sustainability but for His glory to be revealed. Your business might be down and debts chasing you but all that is nothing compared to the money coming to you. You might have faced rejection or all manner of betrayal but God is sending divine helpers who are far beyond those who left you. Hallelujah!

Creation is eagerly waiting for your manifestation, go out today and witness the glory of the Lord manifesting in your life. Your miracle shall turn many to Christ. Be expectant of wonders without number as you step at your work place, school campus or home.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm an embodiment of the divine and my life is a wonder. The glory of the Lord is revealed through my life. Every area of my life shall reveal the power of God. Hallelujah!

Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Many sons and daughters of God are still living in some form of mediocrity believing that the level at which the generals in the Bible operated cannot be reached by anyone living today. It is far-fetched for them to know that we as New Testament creatures can do far beyond what the generals of the old did. The greatest news for your day is to know that you and I can do greater than what was done in the old testament. The bible even confirms that the glory of the later house shall be greater than the former.

Our scripture is clear that to all those who came before John, there was no one greater than him. It might be Isaiah, Joshua or anyone that you might think of, there is no one who was graced like John. He was operating at his own unique level of grace and power. Surprisingly, Jesus went on to say that even the least amongst the born again Christians is greater than John. Brothers and sisters, John did wonders but we can do Wonders Without Number. Go out with this confidence that you are a five-star general of God and you can shift things in your life. Speak words and prophesy into the atmosphere and your environment shall yield to your word. The political or economic rankings of nations is sorely governed by the level of possessions in form of gold, precious minerals and other physical heritages. Some have dominance due to military prowess and powers. It is on this notion that some are regarded to be superpowers; they dictate the behavior of other countries. The worldly realm is governed by physical abilities and those who rely mainly to world systems are subject to all worldly forces.

Prophet Zachariah gave a powerful prophecy unto Zerubbabel that his victory was not based on physical prowess but by the spirit of God. As you read this, you might be thinking that you shall qualify because of your looks, academic qualifications or connections but know there are people who have better advantage than you when it comes to all those things. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised

Before Jesus healed the sick and commanded miracles to happen, he had his personal encounter for forty days and forty nights. Any physical encounter is a product of a spiritual encounter. I have met many people who only desire the gift of God that I carry but never desire to know the encounters that I had with the ancient of days. Generals of God are made from encounters and if an encounter happens, it cannot be overshadowed by anything. It might happen in private but the manifestation is like pregnancy, you cannot hide it.

Be at an environment where you can have a personal encounter with God. As you read the Bible, commune with the divine through prayer and follow the teachings of your mentors, you shall surely have supernatural encounters. You might be on the verge of back-sliding, sin or circumstances are pulling you down, just know Jesus gave you all the power to overcome the forces of this world. Gain your grip and your confidence back and appear boldly before the throne of grace.

It's your own season for a life changing encounter. Be expectant to experience the supernatural that will shift your life forever. As you are reading this word and praying, you are already in the realm of encounters. Wonders without number shall happen to you in the name of Jesus.

But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

The Bible says we are born of the spirit. This means the Spirit should take dominance in our daily life. As Christians we are not supposed to be governed and function by the flesh. There is always tension between your flesh and your spirit as the Bible expresses but as you grow in the word of God, your spirit gains mastery over the flesh. The carnal or the flesh is the source of doubt, backsliding and all manner of failure. When you use the flesh to discern, you get misinformed decision because the flesh is deceiving. There are people you are no longer talking to, duties you quitted in church or some relationships that you broke because your flesh gave you negative information.

Apostle Paul wrote to the church in Corinth that he buried his flesh every day.

This shows you that even the great Apostle was somehow tempted to go astray but he allowed his spirit to never give an exhumation order to his flesh. Everyday, remind your spirit through the word and prayer that you are the master of my life not the flesh. Put nine-inch nails on the flesh every day. You are born of the spirit so you are governed by the spirit not the flesh.

As you read this prophetic word and pray today, declare that every area where your flesh was trying to take dominance, the spirit takes over. Never give your spirit one cold snack and starve it. Give your inner-man a rich menu of the word of God and see victories coming from all angles.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

The words that we speak produces sound waves that carry either demons or angles on assignment. Every spiritual entity needs a sound wave to be released through words for it to move. When you utter yours words, remember it's not just mere words which are you are speaking but you are creating highways and pathways in the spirit to transport angels or demons. The forces in the spirit are moved by waves and frequencies produced by words we speak every day.

Prophet Joel prophetically encouraged the flock of Israel before great wars. He insisted that positive words of strength and stamina have to be said before going to war. Let the weak say I am strong. He didn't say the weak must become strong and then declare those words. No, he said whilst they were still weak let them produce positive frequency by saying "I am strong". In the same vein, do not talk poor, speak a language of possibilities. You are an ambassador of Christ and wherever you go speak like the one who is empowered from above. When you speak rich, the angels of prosperity are acting upon it and at the same time when you speak poor demons of poverty are finding highways to muzzle your life.

It's a brand new day as you are reading this prophetic word. Speak positivity and never allow anyone who speak negativity to be in your life. Your tongue is a destiny chatter. Your life is in the power of your tongue, use it positively for the creation of a glorious destiny. Hallelujah!

Most companies promote individuals based on knowledge gained. Someone might start as a janitor at work but as they grow in knowledge and work ethic, promotion to supervisory or any managerial position is inevitable. Some actually supplement education whilst they are at work, going for night school only to get a promotion. It's a well-defined system where you are paid or promoted based on the knowledge you possess or academic qualification. Performance is something that is not known on day one, but your curriculum vitae can make you get a position and a better salary before your performance is even assessed.

The spiritual realm is governed by the same principle whereby one gets promoted by the knowledge they acquire. Our scripture shows us that faith or any spiritual capability comes through hearing some information. It's evident that the amount of knowledge you possess about God is tantamount to the amount of faith you carry. Weak faith, is a result of poor knowledge of Christ.

Glean the word, grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. The word of God developed muscles to move all the mountains you might be seeing before you.

Some even go to the extent of what I call rape-case to scriptures, forcing scriptures to mean what you want. Our above scripture is a victim of abuse by many sons and daughters of God. People who already received Jesus Christ are encouraged to "seek the kingdom" yet the kingdom is received once and that's it .

The context of seeking the kingdom in our scripture is what not what many think. It's all about seeking the heart of God and what he desires for you to pursue in a season.

It's not about calling the kingdom to come to you but to know the position of God's heart concerning you and the season you are in. Many always ask me this simple question which sounds to be more serious, " what should I do to become wise.." My answer for today is on the scripture above. Soul winning is one of the greatest demonstration of wisdom. The Bible confirms that the moment you start winning souls, it's not only a sign that you are wise but a way to grow in wisdom. When you commit yourself to this golden call to win souls, you become the wisest in the sight of God.

Remember the Bible says there is joy in heaven over one sinner who repents. This means that the only thing which causes God and angels to rejoice in the heavens are souls coming to Christ. Bring souls, you bring joy to God. Soul winning is for the wise because it's not for people who are piling request on God but those who are fulfilling the need of God. We are in the end times and God's greatest quest is for souls to come to the kingdom before the curtain is closed.

God gave you a job, marriage, school and all as a chariot to minister his word. The place where you are spending your day today is a chariot which God gave you to share his Goodnews to someone. From today, do not think of what you will wear on Sunday before think of a soul that you are inviting for fellowship. Go for souls and be the wisest in your generation. Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever.

The scripture above denotes that you are the seed or the offspring of God, meaning that you're the replica of love as your father is LOVE. Everything produces after its own kind. A dog produces dogs, a lion produces lions and God produces "gods". The Bible even confirms that you are gods. You are wired and calibrated from above and this is the uniqueness you have above everything.

You see, God's Word shows us who we are; it's a mirror. When you look at that mirror, don't forget what you're supposed to look like: patient, kind, tolerant, not boastful or proud, loving, humble, rich etc. True love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. The only way you can maintain a love-less life is through a prayer-less life.

If you have no fellowship with the father gained through long hours in prayer - you lose your 'love identity'. God operates with hierarchy and he respects order beyond anything. Any spirit that causes one to go against set order, God resists. He gave us mentors and leaders in our various ministries not as buffers to our success but as an advantage to where we are going. Mentors see your potential and push you to reach the peak of your calling. Sometimes they might sound as harsh to you and if you misinterpret it, you might end up thinking that you are being blocked to do something, yet you are being pruned for greatness.

Paul said all his children were partakers of his grace. The word partaker in Greek is interpreted as an “active participant” in something hence Paul denotes that everyone who followed him was an active participant of his grace. Active participants are there to utilize and enjoy the grace upon their mentors without struggling to get it. Sometimes what your father prayed for you can materialise by being humble and submissive to his instruction. Your leader is an advantage to you not a barricade.

As you are reading this prophetic word and believing in my prophetic utterances, may you partake of my grace. What I carry is yours and what I prayed for shall manifest upon your own life. Let the same grace that works for me, be your grace today in the name of Jesus.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

For most people the moment they gaze a title, they think we are talking about preachers or some kind of ministers of the gospel. Our scripture above Paul uses the word "ministers" to denote all those who are actively participating in the mission field of God. The word "minister" is the same word as "under-rower" or "sub-rower" which means those who row the ship or boat to move forward.

Christ is not there to just do things on his own but he needs someone like you who rows the ship ahead. Through your active participation in soul winning, choir, prayer or any church department, you are becoming a minister of Christ. True Ministers of God are not those who are waiting for the pastor or someone to do something but are there to make things happen. Remember spiritual gifts will not work in heaven, they are for this physical realm. Any gift that you have, use it to the fullest. Let your ministry and your family benefit to that which God deposited in your life.

There is a greater call of God upon your life and today so chose to be an active participant in the grace of God. Don't go to church to hear what God is doing but go there to participate in what God is doing. Commit, dedicate and run in your lane and one day God shall call you faithful servant.

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

A generic understanding of scriptures denotes that Christ died for us and we cause him to be bruised and crucified on the cross. It's pathetic how the body of Christ buys into this old understanding. It's not scriptural for us to be taken as the cause of Jesus Christs death. We are the result of his death. We didn't cause Jesus to be persecuted and crucified but we just emerged as a result of all that.

Our scripture says if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. The word "new" is the Greek word "kainos" which means something which never existed before. You are the product which never existed before. The one who cause Christ to die is

The fruits will produce what they are made of the moment they go through the pressing and crushing.

Paul mentioned all manner or forms of persecution will happen to us as children of God but the best thing is that we are not destroyed or finished. When the world presses us, they should know what we are made of. We are born of the spirit and we feed on the word of God. The word is our genetic makeup. We drip the word of God and our power is beyond human comprehension.

When pressed what comes out of us is "word juice" because we are made up of the word of God. Nothing shall shake you or your family because you are deeply rooted in his word. You are standing on Christ the solid rock and no flood or persecution shall shake you in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The word of God is my fiber and genetic makeup .I shall not be moved by persecution, pain or slander in the name of Jesus

Daniel 7:9

I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Many a times when situations befall us, we end up undermining the capacity and capabilities of God. Because of lack of faith, the voice of your problem is being amplified. God is so concerned that he pays attention to the strands of hair upon your head and is too powerful to write off every situation that you might be facing today.

Daniel called him the "Ancient of days.." , when God is referred as the ancient of days, it means even the days respect him as the old one. He existed before time began, the days call him old. When you worship him remember you are not worshiping an idol which was sculptured yesterday but the one who existed before time began. He knows you in and out and your situation is nothing new to him. Hallelujah!

You worship a great God, the one who can't be voted in or out. He who sits in the circumference of himself. Go out and see a turnaround in every facet of your life because the Lord's hand is upon your life. Glory!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My God is the ancient of days , he existed before my situation .There is nothing impossible with him and today I shall see turn-arounds in the name of Jesus!

Galatians 2:20

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Today's scripture speaks volumes about how we ought to live as Christians. We don't live by our will but God's will. When you submerge yourself with the Word, you become less of you and more of Him. This is the only way for you to truly die to yourself. You were bought with a price not to just have you say that you are saved. You received the life of Christ so Christ can function through you. Glory to God! The life that you now live is through Christ. Colossians 1:27 states, "...which is Christ in you, the Hope of Glory". My God! This walk is all laid out for you, all you need to do is let God work through you.

When law enforcement agents go undercover, they are pretending to be something they are not in order to obtain a specific result. To go further, the devil even disguises himself as an angel of light. Why? To deceive you and to destroy everything that God has planned for you. We are in this world but not of this world. When people see the glory of God upon you, always remember that it is God working through you. Don't get caught up in the results of God using you but get caught up in Him. Some people will never step foot in a church but when they encounter you, they will see God. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

God lives in me. My will is to do His will. I am an ambassador of Christ. I now live by His Love and Grace. Glory be to His Holy Name!

Romans 6:6

Psalm 35:27

Let the Lord be magnified which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

As parents, we always want to showcase how brilliant our children are. Even if what they achieve is not so brilliant, it does not make a difference. Parents are always proud of their children and will share the story with anyone who is willing to listen. Now, in today's scripture, we are told that God our Father has so much pleasure to see His children prosper. Apart from other things God takes pleasure in, the prosperity of His children is what He loves the most. God wants you to be rich, successful, and be in good health.

As Prophet Uebert Angel says that Christianity is not about the poor trying to be rich, but the rich discovering their inexhaustible riches and inheritance in Christ. The Apostle John says it this way in 3

John 1:2 "Beloved I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth." Do you now know what brings joy to God. It's not fasting, worship or prayer where you are begging God to prosper you. God has given us everything pertaining to this life. Understand who you are and partake of the Grace that is available to you. It is God's uttermost desire, His pleasure to see you prosper beyond measure. We serve a prosperous and rich God. Change your mindset today knowing you live a life of abundance. The Money is coming. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am blessed beyond measure. I live a life of supernatural increase, prosperity and abundance in Christ. I will never lack any days of my life. My prosperity will make my Father proud in Jesus name!
